Nineteen Thirty One

Published by the Senior Class
of
Southwestern Louisiana Institute
Lafayette, Louisiana

A decorative archway frame in a golden-brown color. The arch is ornate with a scalloped, flame-like border. It is supported by two vertical pillars with a chevron pattern. The top of the pillars and the ends of the arch are decorated with floral motifs. The entire frame is set against a light cream background.

Foreword

Because of the College Student's thirst for knowledge and the unquenchable spirit of this desire, we have used for the art theme of this book, "The Rubaiyat" of Omar Khayyam. May we concentrate our souls in the search for truths, that it may be said of us as was of him, "His soul rejoices in knowledge of all kinds".

Entry

We feel the grief of parting even now.
Our hearts are heavy and our heads we bow.
"We will remember . . . We shall not forget!"
This with our favorite oath we loudly vow.

And yet we feel that life will take away
Much of the sorrow from this Parting Day.
Much of the sadness from our low lament,
Much of the tribute we in leaving pay.

Farewell. One phase of life is lived and passed.
Our challenge to the world we strongly cast.
All things await us who go out to seek.
The morning sun climbs up toward noon at last.

Coach T. RAY MOBLEY

WALTER PHILLIPS, Manager

"COUNT" BOULET, Captain "BORDY" BORDELON, "SIR WALTER" HAGAN, "DUKE" DUCOTE, JACK CART

ANSWERING the initial call to candidates for the 1930 varsity football team, thirty men, including six old warriors, reported to Coach Mobley for the first practice. Around these six letter men, as a nucleus, our mentor began gradually to build up a team, which soon passed the embryo stage into a smooth working football machine worthy to bear the Southwestern colors against the enemy.

In the first tilt of the season the Bulldogs met Tulane, last year's Southern Conference Champs, to be defeated by the score of 84-0. Although hopelessly outclassed, the team exhibited unquenchable spirit and were in there fighting to the last.

Again fighting against impossible odds the Bulldogs took another decisive defeat at the hands of L. S. U., a Conference team. The spirit of fight shown in the Tulane game was again clearly evidenced. The boys kept right on scrapping when there was no use to fight further.

In our first game on the home field, the Bulldogs again went down in defeat before the flashy aerial attack of the visitors, Marshall College. The home team made fourteen first downs to the opponents' four and were four times within five yards of the goal line, each time failing in the extra punch needed to break through for a touchdown.

"SPEEDY" ROLUFS, "BLACKIE" BIENVENU, "RED" BROWN, "TOM" LEVY, "TIL" BONIN

Successfully breaking what had begun to look like a bad losing streak, the Bulldogs won a 14-0 victory over Mississippi State Teachers here on the home gridiron. The game was featured by straight "land" football. Seldom did either team take to the air, and seldom were their efforts successful. Rodemacher, appearing in his first game of the season, proved himself to be a valuable addition to the backfield.

The fifth game of the season against Louisiana Tech. was a battle of Bulldogs, not only figuratively but literally. The two teams were at each other's throats, stubbornly fighting and bracing throughout the game. Despite the valiant efforts of the Southwestern team, the Tech. Bulldogs proved too strong a foe and carried off the laurels of victory by a margin of 7-0.

In the hardest fought game of the season, the Bulldogs lost to their greatest gridiron rival, Louisiana College at Pineville. The boys would have preferred to win this game to any two games on the schedule, and it was certainly a disappointed and down-hearted team that was forced to take the short end of an 18-13 score. Especially since there was some controversy as to the validity of the last touchdown, requiring the referee's decision to settle the argument.

"HEN" LANDRY, "RODY" RODEMACHER, CALISE GARY, "C. E." CROWDER, "TRITY" TRITICO

After a week's recuperation from the disappointment of losing to the Wildcats, the Bulldogs started on a trip of invasion into Southern territory. Stopping at Mobile, they engaged in a tilt with Spring Hill, not only losing by the score of 20-6, but suffering serious reverses in the injury of three valuable men, Captain Boulet, "Red" Brown and Jack Cart, Captain Boulet being completely incapacitated for the rest of the trip.

Notwithstanding these tough breaks, the Bulldogs ran rough shod over Southern College at Winter Haven in the next game, defeating them by a tally of 13-0.

Arriving in Miami with regained confidence and spirit, the home team barely lost to Miami University in the last game of the trip by the narrow margin of 6-0.

November 27th found the Bulldogs playing Louisiana State Normal here on the home field before the largest crowd of the season. The boys, doped to lose by a large margin, scrapped like true Bulldogs and although losing, held the up-state Demons to an 18-6 score. The only touchdown was made by Blackie Bienvenu, who went over from the five-yard line, after the ball was brought there by Gary and Bordelon in a driving offensive, starting from our thirty yard marker.

"Mac" McLAWCHLIN, "Dan" BULLIARD, "WILLIE" WILBANKS, "JOE E." SMITH, "GEE BOO" RENFROW

This last game of the season marked the last battle of the Southwestern warriors under the tutelage of Coach T. Ray Mobley, who resigned his position to go over to Louisiana State University as Alumni Secretary. We feel sure that we are voicing the sentiments of the whole student body in expressing our regrets at his leaving and wishing him the best of luck.

In summing up the battles fought by this Southwestern team of 1930, we feel that nothing could be more appropriate than to quote an old saying of our mentor's that:

"When the Great Scorer comes to write against your name, He'll write not that you won or lost, but how you played the game."

The Tom Cambre trophy given each year to the most valuable man on the squad was awarded this year to P. W. Bordelon.

The men awarded letters were: Tilden Bonin, P. W. Bordelon, Dan Bulliard, Raymond "Red" Brown, Lloyd Boulet, Marcel Bienvenu, Jack Cart, C. E. Crowder, Ewell Ducote, Calise Gary, Ethert Hagan, Henry Landry, T. L. Levy, Lee Mayeux, Tilden McLawchlin, Winston Renfrow, Morgan Rodemacher, Otto Rolufs, Beverly Smith, Frank Tritico, L. F. Wilbanks, and Walter Phillips, Manager.

Freshman Football 1930

THE SOUTHWESTERN pup football team of 1930 presented a most promising array of gridiron material. Sporting many stars from the high schools of the state, it was evident from the first practice that the Frosh would develop into one of the best first year clubs we have had here for a long time.

And they did not fall short of our expectations. Meeting L. S. U. in the first college game of the season, the Bullpups held the Tiger cubs down to a score of 27-0. This is the best that has been done by an S. L. I. team for many years, and it certainly took a crack squad to do it.

We next find the Frosh playing Louisiana College here on the home field. Really showing their worth, they completely outclassed and defeated the Kittens by the score of 52-0.

In the following game, handicapped by the absence of their mentor, Coach Browne, the Bullpups lost to Louisiana Tech by the close margin of 7-6.

Then going up to Natchitoches, the boys were beaten by the Normal Frosh by the score of 18-7.

Giving an excellent account of themselves in every game, the freshmen went through the rest of the schedule, ending with a defeat of the Fort Crockett Flyers, a crack independent team, by a tally of 13-0.

The best prospects of this year's freshmen squad are: Levy Lacour, Clay Summers, Luther Perrin, backs. Sam Fertitta and Henry David, ends. Monroe Moss, center and Robert Robertson, guard.

WALTER PHILLIPS, Manager

"MA" HAMIC, Captain, "BORDY" BORDELON, BOYD FAULK, Captain Elect, "RODY" RODEMACHER

CLAUDE HAMIC, captain and acting center, has proven himself to be one of our most valuable players. The most elusive forward on the squad, he is a past master at the art of faking and advancing the ball. And his skill doesn't stop at the proximity to the basket, for he is in addition a most consistently accurate goal shooter.

P. W. Bordelon, forward and running mate to Hamic, is another of the veterans of last year's championship team. A smooth and clever player, he handles the ball like an artist, and can always be depended upon to turn in his share of completed goals. Bordy is a senior, and is leaving us this year. His presence will be missed on the campus, as well as on the team, and we certainly hate to see him go.

Morgan Rodemacher, our diminutive forward, was awarded a berth on the S. I. A. A. all conference team last season, and has shown by his performance this year, that the honor was not misplaced. A flash of lightning on the court, he is harder to stop than a hummingbird. And when the ball leaves Rody's hand on its path to the basket, the chances are that it will end the flight safely in the net.

Boyd Faulk, Captain-elect, the fourth of last year's veterans, is a guard of the first magnitude. A tower of strength to the team, he has proven many times to the chagrin of the opponents, that trying to get the leather sphere through his defense is a task analogous to threading a needle with a grapevine.

L. F. Wilbanks, a newcomer on the squad, has shown by his ability at guard, that he is a valuable addition to the team. On the court, his bulky form looms up before his opponents like the Rock of Gibraltar, and is just as hard to get past. Wilbanks shows every promise of becoming a stellar player, and we are mighty glad that he is only a sophomore, with two more years to play.

Giles Pennington, forward, another graduate from Freshman ranks, speedily developing into a smooth and capable player, soon become an integral part of the quintet. His ability as an advance man would do credit to a player of long experience, and we have come to expect great things of this new basketeer.

Otto Broussard, senior, played his first season of basketball this year, and after seeing the performance turned in by this little forward, we can't understand why he hasn't played with the Bulldogs before. His clean sportsmanship, and outstanding ability makes us regret deeply that he will not be back with us on the campus, and the Southwestern team next year.

T. L. Levy, coming up from the Freshman squad, has, under the tutelage of our mentor, developed into a most capable man. Although not a regular player on the quintet, he can always be depended upon to fill the shoes of any man on the team in a satisfactory manner. T. L. is best at guard, and has done some very creditable playing at this position.

Sidney Naquin, playing his first year of basketball on the varsity, at guard, has shown up very creditably. He is conscientious and anxious to learn, which two qualities coupled with the natural ability, so clearly evidenced in his playing, will carry him far on the road to basketball achievement.

Freshman Basket Ball

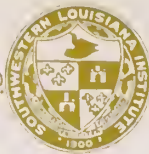

THE Freshman basket ball team of 1931, coached by our varsity mentor, Pickell, exhibited every indication of some very promising material for next year. Individually and collectively, the Frosh basketballers functioned as smoothly and effectively as a veteran squad.

Starting the season with a series of games against high schools and independent teams, the Bullpups sailed through the schedule without losing a tilt. Next meeting Normal in a two-game series, the home boys lost both times, the last game being dropped by a close margin.

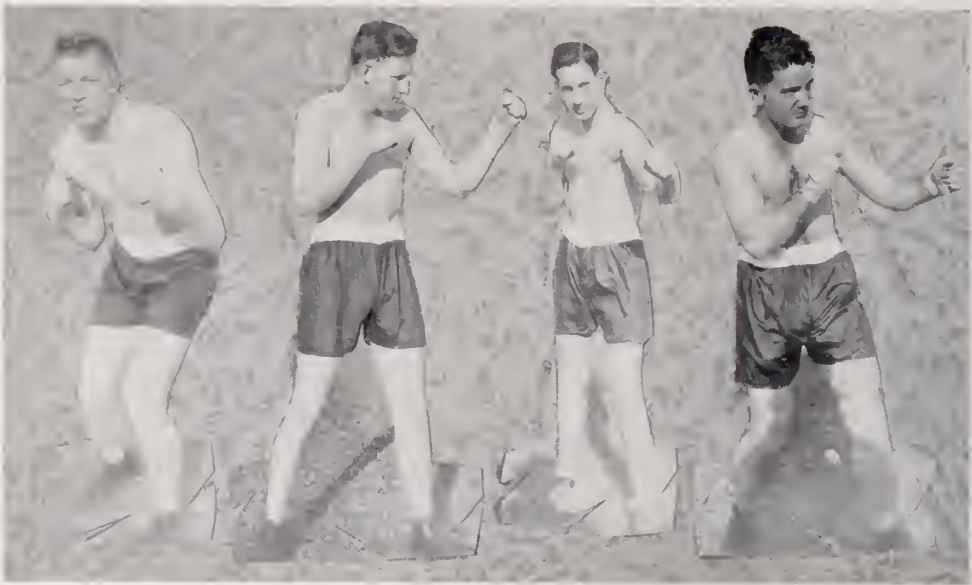

The outstanding players on the team were: Raoul Chauviere, center, Sam Fertitta, guard, Luther Perrin, forward, Levy Lacour, forward, and Crowder, guard. These five men composed the regular Frosh quintet, and in all probability, will be the ones to fill up the gaps made in the varsity by graduation.

The players awarded numerals were:

LEVY LACOUR, Bunkie
LUTHER PERRIN, Kaplan
RAOUL CHAUVIERE, Abbeville
SAM FERTITTA, Leesville
HOMER CROWDER, Sugartown

Boxing 1931

"RED" BROWN. JOHN BROWN, 'DON" ST. GERMAIN, "CHOLIE" BOLLICH

With the opening of the boxing season, the second since its inauguration as a major sport here at Southwestern, twelve candidates for the team reported to Coach "Jerry" Haas for training. Among these were seven letter men, and under the skilled teaching of our mentor, the squad speedily began to take shape, with every indication of a successful season.

Coach JEROME HAAS

In the first meet of the season, the Bulldog mittmen met Tulane here in the S. L. I. gym on January 5th. The boys, just returned from the Thanksgiving holidays, were not in very good condition, and lost the match by a decisive margin, taking but two out of the seven fights on the card. Womack, our classy little bantam weight winning one of these by a popular decision, and the inimitable "Red" Brown taking the other by the usual knockout. All the other Southwestern boxers with the exception of Bollich were completely outclassed. But Bollich, our welterweight put up a good scrap, losing by a close decision.

The next fight on the schedule with Mississippi A. and M., the S. L. I. leather pushers lost by a margin of one bout, which they were forced to forfeit to the opponents, having no man to enter in the light-heavy class. The first fight of the evening was between Womack and Terril. Our diminutive bantam-weight again came through with a decisive victory, clearly outpointing his opponent. The next win went to Don Williams, lightweight and a new-comer on the team. Williams fought the first three rounds to a draw, but undoubtedly proved his superiority in the extra frame. Red Brown, Southern A. A. U. champ won the next S. L. I. victory over Brady, easily scoring a technical knockout. The Bulldog fighters then invited L. S. U. down for a tilt here on the 17th of February. Opening the evening's entertainment, Womack lost to Marx, who is one of the best bantamweights in inter-collegiate boxing in the south. Our little fighter put up a beautiful scrap, and considering the odds which he had to contend against did exceedingly well. In the next fight, resulting in the only Southwestern victory of the meet, Chaney, featherweight, scored a well earned win over Morgan of the Tigers. Following this, St. Germain, lightweight, lost to Barrow, last year's captain of the Tigers, in a fast and exciting bout in which both fighters gave an exhibition of some skilled boxing. Bollich, our welterweight, then climbed into the ring, and lost by what looked like a mighty close decision. In fact, we cannot understand how any referee could draw so fine a discrimination. John Brown, brother of our man-killing heavyweight lost the middleweight scrap to Hornsey of the Tigers. Brown exhibited some fine battling, but was outpointed by his opponent. In the final affray of the evening, Red Brown, heavyweight, who had never before been defeated in the ring, lost a shady decision to Ed Khoury, the Black Prince from the Capital City.

This engagement proved to be the last meet of the season, and the gloves were hung up again, till the re-opening next year.

Track 1930

UNDER the wing of "Mother" Browne, our very capable track mentor, the Bulldog spikemen of 1930 had a highly successful season, winning three out of five dual meets by large margins and taking an easy second place in the S. I. A. A. District meet at Alexandria.

The season was ushered in by the annual Relay Carnival held here in March, and which was a great success from every standpoint. There were six records broken, two of which fell before the onslaught of Bulldog men. These were the pole vault by Seale, who set the new mark at 11 feet 5 inches, and the 120-yard hurdles by Hawkins who topped the high sticks in 15.2 seconds.

The next meet of the season found the Bulldogs taking down the Normal Demons by the score of 67-45. Not faring so well in the following engagement, we were defeated by the Loyola Wolf Pack by a 70-42 margin. Proving the truth of the old adage, "It never rains but it pours", the home team was again defeated by the L. S. U. Tigers, the tally this time being 66-45. But the clouds were completely dispelled in the next tilt, Southwestern coming out victorious over Louisiana Tech. by the score of 71-40. The Bulldogs then left for Alexandria to participate, and carry off second honors in the S. I. A. A. District Meet, which was won by Loyola. Ending the season with a decisive victory, the home team trimmed Louisiana College 87-30.

Tennis 1930

USHERING in the 1930 tennis season, the Bulldog racquet wielders met Louisiana College here on the home court. Although the home boys were not in good form, they fought hard throughout the match, refusing to admit defeat until the last set. LaBorde and Davidson, both came through with wins in the singles, exhibiting extraordinary skill and generalship.

The Stubbins-LaBorde combination in the doubles, went down in defeat before the lobbing attack of the opposing team. Both boys played good games but were not as strong as the Wildcat pair.

Anderson playing in the singles, lost a hard fought battle to his Louisiana College opponent. The last doubles match had to be called a draw on account of darkness, neither team having any advantage up to this point.

The next tilt was with Millsaps College, in which the Bulldog net team were seemingly outclassed, and lost the match by a tally of 4-1.

To close the short season, the Southwesterns went up to Louisiana College, and again lost to the Wildcats in an unfinished match, discontinued because of darkness, by the score of 4-1.

The team was coached and sponsored by Young and Landry of the S. L. I. faculty.

Golf 1930

THE season of the golf team of 1930 was as usual very brief, consisting of two matches with L. S. U. and as usual resulted in two defeats, though we did have the satisfaction of scoring some points in the match which took place on our home course. In previous years we lost all the points. Hope on, hope ever!

The team consisted of the following players: T. E. (Jack) Robinson, captain, Mims Morgan, Johnnie Morriss and Max Saucier. All the boys played good golf at times but were up against more experienced players. If we could get matches with Tech., Normal or Louisiana College, we might have more of a chance for victory but these institutions are still in the Dark Ages, not yet having reached the golfing stage of human existence.

As usual the faculty golf team, consisting of Professors Mitchell and Mallison upheld the glory of Southwestern by winning the only match played, that against Dr. Pachmann and Major Brougher of L. S. U., by the margin of one hole in the 36 hole contest.

Southwestern was well represented in the City Championship. The following students and faculty members took part: Dr. Mitchell, Dean Smith, Professor Mallison and Jack Robinson. Robinson won the Championship with Mallison runner-up. The Southwestern championship saw the same two players in the finals with the opposite result. The cup has been played for for three times with the result that three different names are engraved on it: 1928 A. W. Bittle; 1929 T. E. Robinson; 1930 A. G. Mallison.

Johnny Morriss

A LONG with the name of Chris Cagle, nationally known football player, the name of Johnny Morriss will go down in the annals of Bulldog celebrities, as one of the best athletes ever turned out by S. L. I. This sterling spikeman after a stellar career in track and football here for three years, has kept right on climbing to fame on the cinder path, and achieved national recognition as a great hurdler, and candidate for the 1932 Olympic team.

After leaving Southwestern, Johnny was invited up to Pittsburgh to participate in the A. A. U. Nationals, winning the Junior High Hurdles in 14.7 seconds and qualifying for the Senior races. Meeting a field of stars, he was going fine when, accidentally stumbling, was forced to retire. Notwithstanding this unfortunate showing, the A. A. U. officials asked him to join the American team which met the British at Soldiers Field last August. He did not fare so well in this dual meet, but came into his own when he met and defeated Lord Burleigh, Olympic Champ, at Toronto. This victory gained him wide renown, and is so far the crowning feat of his career.

On the strength of this enviable record, we do not hesitate to predict that when the Olympic team of 1932 is picked, Johnny Morriss will be among those chosen.
